Theater Arts (MA)

Each graduate student is expected to show ability in both academic and production areas. During residence at the university, a student is expected to make a significant contribution in three areas out of the following seven: acting, directing, technical theater, management, playwriting, teaching, and design.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this program, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate mastery of subject content though course work.
- Demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills.
- Acquire research skills necessary to carry out a significant independent research project (i.e. an M.A. Thesis as described in the Graduate Handbook).
- Demonstrate pedagogic ability in teaching undergraduates.
- Complete requirements for foreign language proficiency (equivalent to completion of two years of college-level foreign language study in one foreign language).
