

Journalism: Public Relations (BA/BS)

<http://journalism.uoregon.edu>

Public relations is all about connecting people—to information, to organizations, and to other people. In our nationally certified program, you'll learn how to convey the right message to the right audience at the right time while forging relationships built on ethics, trust, and transparency.

Our students plan, create, and strategize in real-world settings. You'll build your portfolio as you develop innovative campaigns for real clients in our student-run public relations firm (<https://blogs.uoregon.edu/allenhallpr/>), or expand your network in the Public Relations Student Society of America (<https://prssa.prsa.org/>). Travel the country (<https://around.uoregon.edu/sojc/public-information-officer/>) to rub elbows with public relations professionals, tour Silicon Valley agencies, and peek behind the scenes of high-profile communication departments at companies like Nike and Google.

Program Learning Outcomes
