Facilities

The School of Music and Dance’s five-unit building complex includes the 540-seat Beall Concert Hall, acclaimed for its superb acoustics; separate band, choir, and orchestra rehearsal rooms with support facilities; practice rooms; a small recital hall; studio offices, classrooms, and seminar rooms.

In 2008, two new wings were added to the MarAbel B. Frohnmayer Music Building, containing state-of-the-art, acoustically isolated teaching studios, classrooms, and practice rooms. The Leona DeArmond Academic Wing provides studios for the Suzuki Strings Program, a music education teaching laboratory, twenty-eight teaching studios, classrooms, and practice rooms. The Thelma Schnitzer Performance Wing contains a symphony-size rehearsal hall, dedicated rehearsal spaces for jazz and percussion studies, a recording studio, and additional practice rooms.

Significant renovations were also made to the existing facilities.

In 2017 the SOMD welcomed the Oregon Bach Festival into their new building. While the OBF originated with the SOMD (then the School of Music), but since then had found different homes around campus. The new 10,000 square foot building provides space for program rehearsals, recitals, lectures, and receptions, as well as administrative offices and support space, and gives the OBF a prominent presence on campus and in the city. In addition to accommodating the OBF, Berwick Hall is a welcoming destination for students and faculty from the School of Music and Dance. The multi-functional rehearsal room provides dedicated performance space for the festival, with high-performance acoustical design tuned for musicians and their audience. It seats up to 120 patrons and is used for intimate performances. This 2,000 square foot, double-height room is day-lit via skylights, with a window framing a near courtyard garden.

Collier House, one of the buildings within the SOMD’s purview, is listed as one of the school’s facilities. Built in 1885–86 by the Collier family, it is a rare example of a late Victorian house in bracketed style, with an Italianate-style interior popular in the Northwest in the late 1800s. From the early 1900’s to 2004 Collier house has been a residence for a university president and a chancellor, a library, a faculty club, a boarding house for professors, a restaurant, and a community meeting house–pub. In August 2004, music history faculty offices and the Early Music Program were moved to Collier House. A variety of courses, seminars, meetings, recitals, and programs are held there.

The Music Collection, located on the third floor of Knight Library, contains more than 50,000 recordings and 1,000 serials, including composers’ complete works, music reference resources, current and bound periodicals, and a collection of more than 28,000 books and 57,000 scores. The Douglass Room, renovated in 2019, features a study lounge and browsable recording collection (compact discs, LPs, and cassettes). Facilities in the Douglass Room include an audiovisual-wired classroom, listening stations, five MIDI workstations with software for composing, mixing, digital audio editing and music engraving, and two reservable recording/editing suites complete with nearfield monitors, recording gear, and acoustic treatment. The score and record collections’ strengths include music by Oregon composers, women composers, and contemporary publications provided by approval plans for recently published North American and international scores. The book collection includes a large German-language collection as well as standard music resources and most university press publications. Electronic resources for music include e-books and databases for scholarly publications, streaming audio and video, and contemporary electronic scores.

Reference service to the collection is provided by the Music Librarian and the Music Reference Team. The complete music and recording collections are included in the UO Libraries online catalog (https://library.uoregon.edu/).

The School of Music and Dance houses two pipe organs, including a nationally recognized organ by Jürgen Ahrend of East Friesland, Germany—a concert instrument unique in America—and a two-manual tracker organ by David Petty and Associates. Two of the nine harpsichords available for student use are French doubles by William Dowd. The others are a German double by Keith Hill, an Italian by Owen Daly, and a Zuckerman single harpsichord. Of the collection of 125 pianos, which includes eight concert grands, more than 50 are Steinways. Classrooms and practice rooms are equipped with grand or upright pianos, and piano majors have access to locked grand piano practice rooms. Other keyboard instruments include three clavichords and several early pianos. Additionally, the SOMD has a modern group piano laboratory featuring Roland digital keyboards.

Future Music Oregon features a suite of outstanding studios for electroacoustic and new media composition that provide powerful, high-quality environments in which students learn and create. Studios are equipped with current software, digital mixers, and game controllers, with sensor-based interfaces for technological and artistic exploration.

The university owns an extensive collection of orchestral and band instruments and a distinctive collection of instruments used in the study of world music and reproductions of early musical instruments.

The Pacific Rim Gamelan performs on the beautiful instruments of Gamelan Suranadi Sari Indra Putra, donated to the school in 1986 by John and Claudia Lynn of Eugene. The ensemble is a multicultural composing and performing orchestra, and works composed by its members use instruments from around the world as well as gamelan instruments.

Kyai Tunjung Mulya ("Noble Lotus Blossom") is a complete central Javanese court gamelan orchestra, consisting of more than eighty iron, brass, bronze, teak, and bamboo instruments. Classes and workshops in Javanese gamelan music are taught periodically by visiting musicians from Indonesia.

The Kammerer Computer Laboratory offers students the opportunity to become familiar with a variety of mainstream software for digital audio editing, composing, mixing, as well as software for music notation, music theory, and aural skills. Other resources in the lab include MIDI (musical instrument digital interface) keyboards, sound-generating and sequencing software programs; access to the Internet; Microsoft Office applications; and Adobe graphic editing programs for academic use. Among the audio software contained in the lab is: Max/MSP, Apple Logic Pro X, iZotope Ozone, iZotope Nectar, Antares Autotune, Celemony Melodyne, Soundtoys Academic Complete, Spectrasonics Omnisphere, FabFilter total bundle, Finale, and Sibelius.
Concerts and Recitals

More than 250 concerts and recitals are presented on campus throughout the year by visiting artists, members of the School of Music and Dance faculty (Faculty Artist Series), and more than 40 student ensembles. Other regularly scheduled concerts include performances by internationally famous artists sponsored by the Chamber Music at Beall series and the World Music Series.

Hosted events include the Northwest Percussion Festival, Northwest Horn Society regional symposium, International Tuba Euphonium Association Northwest regional conference, American Liszt Society Festival, Northwest Suzuki Institute summer camp, Community Music Institute recitals, Carl Orff workshops, the North American Saxophone Alliance, the Joe Allessi Trombone Seminar, Oregon Music Education Association All-State conference, three high school summer music camps, and lectures from Robert M. Trotter Visiting Professors and the Steve Larson Distinguished Lecture Series, the Musicking Conference, the Society for 17th Century International Conference, the Society for Electro-Acoustic Music in the United States national conference, and others.

The annual Vanguard Concert Series features 20th-century music in concerts and workshops. Nationally prominent artists give a public concert and hold workshops in which they read, rehearse, and record music composed for them by members of the Composers Forum.

The biennial Music Today Festival, founded and directed by Robert Kyr, is a series of concerts and cultural events that celebrates 20th- and 21st-century music from around the world. The festival features regional performers and ensembles as well as internationally renowned artists.

Jazz concerts and workshops by prominent artists offer opportunities for university students to perform. The Jazz Studies Program hosts the Oregon Jazz Celebration, an annual weekend festival that includes workshops for middle school, high school, and college jazz ensembles.

Since 1969, the School of Music and Dance has hosted the annual Oregon Bach Festival during a two-week period in late June and early July. The festival, founded by Helmuth Rilling and Royce Saltzman, combines an educational program in choral music for academic credit with the offering of some fifty public concerts and events. While the focus is Bach, major choral and instrumental works by other composers are programmed regularly. Distinguished soloists from around the world are featured with the festival chorus and orchestra. Every other year the School of Music and Dance offers a Composers Symposium in conjunction with the Oregon Bach Festival.

THEME (Theory, History, Ethnomusicology, Music Education)—a group of faculty members and graduate students interested in music research—meets three or four times a term on Friday afternoons to share the results of ongoing or recently completed research, discuss the profession of teaching and research, and hear guest speakers. Some recent guests are Anne Azéma, Michael Broyles, Thomas Christensen, Robert Duke, Allen Forte, Robert Gjerdingen, Douglas Hofstadter, Andrew Homzy, Vijay Iyer, Mark Johnson, Harald Krebs, Barbara Lundquist, Henry Martin, Margarita Mazo, Susan McClary, Ingrid Monson, Bruno Nettl, Alejandro Planchart, Harold Powers, Katharine Preston, Jihad Racy, Carl Schachtner, Christopher Smith, Joseph Straus, Steven Strunk, Michael Tenzer, Alan Walker, and Keith Waters.

Student Organizations

The professional music fraternity, Mu Phi Epsilon, and the Kappa Kappa Psi band fraternity maintain chapters at the University of Oregon. There is also an active collegiate chapter of the National Association for Music Education.

Financial Assistance

For complete information about financial aid, including loans, see the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships section of this catalog.

Scholarships

The University of Oregon School of Music and Dance gratefully acknowledges the generous contributions of individuals, foundations, businesses, and organizations that have established named endowed and annual scholarships for the benefit of music and dance students.
More than $1.5 million is awarded annually in music scholarships. Although a large portion of these are allocated for undergraduate (http://music.uoregon.edu/apply/undergraduate-music/financial-aid/) study, limited scholarship funding is also available for graduate students (http://music.uoregon.edu/apply/graduate-music/financial-aid/).

Most undergraduate performance scholarships are automatically renewed for up to four years; graduate performance scholarships are renewed for the standard length of time it takes to complete the degree. Most scholarships are awarded on the basis of musical achievement, however, some specialized scholarships are awarded by individual areas in the School of Music to continuing students for achievements in a particular discipline. To determine scholarship recipients, the music and dance faculty relies on the applicant’s application, audition (where applicable), and academic record.

Graduate Employees
A limited number of graduate employee (GE) positions are available to admitted graduate music majors. In addition to the fellowship stipend, tuition and health insurance coverage is paid by the university. For more information, applicants should contact the associate dean of admissions and financial aid (http://music.uoregon.edu/apply/graduate-music/financial-aid/) at 541-346-6191.

Performance Studies
Courses in performance studies are listed with the MUP subject code. Fees are required. These courses customarily include weekly lessons and studio master classes. MUP courses fall into two general categories:

Enrollment in any performance studies registration number between 165 - 765 must be preceded by an audition. Auditions are conducted to establish the appropriate registration number.

Students must register for at least 2 credits of performance study. Students will receive a minimum of nine lessons per term.

Enrollment in performance studies is sometimes limited because of faculty teaching loads. Under such circumstances, priority is given to continuing music majors. Students who are not assigned to a faculty member may study with a graduate employee for credit at extra cost.

Undergraduate Music Performance and Music Education students advance from one registration number to the next through area juries. Performance studies courses carry 2 or 4 credits per term. Students giving recitals must be enrolled in performance studies. During the term of the recital, students may not enroll in Reading and Conference: [Topic] (MUS 405) or Reading and Conference: [Topic] (MUS 605) in preparation for their recital. Pre-recital hearings are required to evaluate the student’s readiness for public performance. After the recital, a faculty evaluation is required. If approval is given, the recital is formally acknowledged as a fulfilled degree requirement.

For details concerning specific registration numbers, repertory, and any other questions, please contact the individual studio faculty members.

Music Performance majors whose primary instrument is piano have an accompanying requirement, described under the Bachelor of Music in Music Performance heading in the Undergraduate section.

Auditions

In many degree programs, the audition is the most important factor in determining admission to the School of Music and Dance. As part of the admission process, applicants to most music degree programs must either audition (in person or via recording) or submit a portfolio (the option for applicants to the music technology program). Students who submit recorded auditions may be required to audition in person upon arrival on campus. Auditions for admission are held in November, January, and February. Each student who auditions for admission is automatically considered for a music scholarship. For more detailed information about repertoire and procedure, visit the School of Music and Dance admissions website (http://music.uoregon.edu/apply/undergraduate-music/).

An audition is not required for admission to the BA or BS in music with Theory, History & Literature, General Music or Popular Music Studies concentrations. However, the Theory and History & Literature concentrations do have specific requirements for continuation in the program. See the Music Degree Program Continued Enrollment Requirements section below for details.

Jazz Studies

Students who want to enter the jazz studies major have a jazz audition. In addition, a placement examination specific to jazz studies is required of transfer students wishing to enter the program.

Music Technology

Students who want to enter the music technology program must submit a portfolio. A classical audition is not required for admittance to the bachelor or science music technology degree program. However, students admitted only on the basis of a portfolio are only considered for the music technology program and are not eligible to pursue other degree programs within the school.

English Language Proficiency

Scores for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) are required for students whose first language is not English. For admittance as an undergraduate music major, English language proficiency requirements must be met by one of the following: a minimum total TOEFL score of 575 on the paper-based test or a minimum total score of 88 on the Internet-based test; a minimum total score of 7.0 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS); or completion of all required Academic English for International Students (AEIS) course work.

Placement Examinations

Incoming music majors may take a musicianship diagnostic, which is designed to assess basic skills in theory, ear training and keyboard skills. All transfer students are required to take a music core placement examination, which determines level placement in music theory, aural skills, and keyboard skills courses. Exceptions may be made for students from institutions with whom the School of Music and Dance has a program articulation agreement, including Lane Community College and Mt. Hood Community College. For details, students should consult the Undergraduate Office (https://music.uoregon.edu/current-students/undergraduate-music-students/). Incoming freshman students may choose to take the music core placement exam (for the purpose of testing out of part of the music core). Study guides for the placement are available from the music undergraduate website (https://music.uoregon.edu/undergraduate-music/). Incoming freshman students may choose to take the music core placement exam (for the purpose of testing out of part of the music core). Study guides for the placement are available from the music undergraduate website (https://music.uoregon.edu/undergraduate-music/).

Admission to a Specific Degree Program

Students are placed in their primary program of choice, as indicated on their School of Music and Dance application, upon Initial admission to the school. Requirements for continued enrollment in music majors vary significantly, as outlined in the chart below. Additional information is available from the undergraduate office.

Program Overlap Limitations

Due to significant curricular overlap, concurrent pursuit of the following music programs is not allowed:

- Music minor with any other major or minor program in music
- Music technology major with music technology minor
- Music technology major with audio production minor
- Music major with general music or popular music studies concentrations with any bachelor of music (BMus) or bachelor of music in music education (BMME) degree

Programs within the school.
In addition, it is not possible to pursue a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science in music with multiple concentrations.

- BS in Music (General Music Concentration)—three of the required six terms may be transferred (see checklist for transfer credit limitations)
- BS in Music (Music Technology Concentration)—all three of the required terms must be completed in residence
- BS in Music (Popular Music Studies Concentration)—two of the required four terms may be transferred (see checklist for transfer credit limitations)
- BMus in Music Composition—three of the required nine terms may be transferred
- BMus in Music: Jazz Studies—three of the required nine terms of small jazz ensemble may be transferred; all three of the required terms of classical ensemble may be transferred
- BMus in Music Performance—six of the required twelve terms may be transferred
- BMME in Music Education—three of the required nine terms may be transferred

Only one approved ensemble per term may be transferred. For the purposes of transfer, two semesters shall equal three terms of credit and one semester shall equal one term of credit.

Exceptions to Ensemble Requirements

Students who meet one of the following exceptions are not required to audition for ensemble placement:

- Harp, classical guitar, harpsichord, and organ students may enroll in MUS 394 Chamber Ensemble: [Topic] (Chamber Ensemble) instead of the large conducted ensembles
- Jazz studies majors must enroll in three terms of classical ensembles, which may include MUS 394 Chamber Ensemble: [Topic], Band: [Topic] (MUS 395), Orchestra: [Topic] (MUS 396), or Chorus: [Topic] (MUS 397)
- With instructor approval, piano students may enroll in MUS 394 Chamber Ensemble: [Topic] (Accompanying) or MUS 421 The Collaborative Pianist, MUS 422 The Collaborative Pianist, MUS 423 The Collaborative Pianist instead of large conducted ensembles
- Composition students may enroll in three terms of gamelan in partial fulfillment of the requirement
- Studio guitar students may enroll in a chamber, studio guitar, or jazz ensemble instead of a large conducted ensemble
- Students pursuing the popular music studies concentration have nontraditional ensemble options and requirements. For details, see checklist.

Other exceptions to ensemble requirements may be considered by the ensemble petition committee after the student completes the following:

- auditions for the appropriate ensemble auditioning committee (choral or instrumental)
- submits a petition to the music undergraduate office

General Requirements

In addition to the general university requirements for bachelor’s degrees (see the Registration and Academic Policies (http://catalog.uoregon.edu/admission/graduation/registration_policies/) section of this catalog), all undergraduate degrees in music require the following:

Total Credits 41

1. For some majors, one to three terms of Analysis: [Topic] (MUS 327) may be required beyond the two-year musicianship core. For details, see checklist (https://music.uoregon.edu/current-students/undergraduate-music-students/undergraduate-checklists/).

Satisfactory Progress toward the Degree

Satisfactory progress toward the degree is monitored every term by the SOMD Undergraduate Office. The following conditions must be maintained for good academic standing within the department:

1. Students must maintain a 2.75 GPA for all classes taken with the subject codes MUS, MUP, MUE and MUJ within a given term.
2. Courses must be taken for a grade if the graded option is offered. Majors must earn a C– or better in every course—including courses taken outside the School of Music and Dance—that is required for their major. A student who receives a grade of D+ or worse or a mark of W (withdrawal) or I (incomplete) for a required course is placed on departmental academic warning.
3. Candidates for the BMus, BMME, BA in Music (Theory concentration), or BS in Music (Music Technology concentration) must successfully complete the two-year musicianship core (with the exception of MUS 327 Analysis) within their first two years of residence.
4. Candidates for a BMus in Music Performance or a BMME in Music Education must advance to the next performance level at least once every seven terms.

Not meeting these requirements will result in initial academic warning status. If this status is not lifted by the end of the next term in which the student has had the opportunity to remedy the situation, the student will move on to a level II departmental academic warning. Failure to improve per conditions set forth in an advising plan following the warning will move the student onto probationary status and subsequent failure to improve thereafter will result in dismissal from the music major.

Reinstatement to the major may occur upon review by the SOMD Undergraduate Office and determination that the student has fulfilled the conditions listed above for satisfactory standing.

Undergraduate music majors re-enrolling after two or more consecutive terms of non-enrollment in the music major curriculum (excluding summer session) are required to petition for readmission to the music major. Depending on the results of this petition, a student may be required to reapply for music major admission through standard music admission processes or re-audition for level placement in performance studies as a music major. Placement exams in theory, aural skills, and keyboard skills may also be required. In addition, undergraduate majors admitted to a specific degree program prior to being un-enrolled for two or more consecutive terms may also be required to re-apply for admittance to that specific degree program by their major department or area. Students studying abroad or in an approved exchange program are exempt from the readmission petition requirement.

Typical First-Year Program for Music Major Degree Programs

The bachelor of arts in music (both general music and popular music studies concentrations) and the bachelor of science in music (both general music and popular music studies concentrations) can vary significantly in their options for the first year of study.

Specific Degree Requirements

Minimum requirements for a bachelor's degree in music are 36 credits in the major, including 24 upper-division credits. In addition to general university requirements and the general requirements for all undergraduate music degrees, each undergraduate music degree has the following specific requirements.

Four-Year Degree Plan

The degree plan shown is only a sample of how students may complete their degrees in four years. There are alternative ways. Students should consult their advisor to determine the best path for them.

Entrance Examinations

Before their first term of enrollment, students who are admitted into a graduate music degree program must take the Graduate Entrance Examination in music theory, aural skills, and music history. The outcome of these exams determines whether graduate music students may register for graduate-level music theory and musicology courses or if subsequent courses will be required to meet the proficiency requirement. Students in the graduate certificate in music performance program are not required to meet the Graduate Entrance Examination proficiency level but must pass the Graduate Entrance Examination in order to meet prerequisites to register for graduate-level music theory and musicology classes.

The Graduate Entrance Examination is administered before each fall term during Week of Welcome. Students are required to either pass the GEE or pass required remedial course work in order to meet the proficiency requirement. Students who fail to pass the examination or pass required remedial undergraduate course work by the end of fall term in their second year will be dismissed from the program.

Students who fail the Graduate Entrance Examination in music theory and/or aural skills (i.e., earn a score of less than 70 percent) will be required to take the appropriate undergraduate music theory and/or aural skills courses to meet the proficiency requirement. Students who are required to take undergraduate core courses in the first and second years of their program may retake the GEE at the beginning of the second year to satisfy the Level IV requirement. For more information, please see the music school’s Procedures and Policies (https://blogs.uoregon.edu/gradmus/procedures-policies/).

Students scoring between 50 and 69 percent on the music history portion of the GEE are required to take and pass an additional music history survey course from the MUS 660–665 series (in addition to any MUS 660–665 courses required for the degree). Based on the test results and demonstrated areas of weakness, members of the musicology faculty determine one or two of the survey courses to be taken by the student.

Students scoring below 50 percent are required to pass Survey of Music History (MUS 267), Survey of Music History (MUS 268), and Survey of Music History (MUS 269).

Master’s Degree Requirements

In addition to the University of Oregon Division of Graduate Studies’ requirements for master’s degrees, the School of Music and Dance has the following requirements. For additional information, contact the music graduate office or consult the Info for Grad Students (https://music.uoregon.edu/current-students/info-graduate-music-students/) webpage.

A minimum of 9 credits must be taken in 600- or 700-level courses and at least one-half of the required credits must be in courses intended for graduate students only. Degree candidates must complete a terminal project (e.g., recital, thesis, project), all of which must be archived in one of the following locations: Music Services in Knight Library, Scholars’ Bank, ProQuest, or Cykler Music Education Library.
Doctoral Program Requirements

Comprehensive Examinations
Written and oral comprehensive examinations are taken before advancement to candidacy but after meeting the following conditions:

1. Completion of all course work and additional requirements
2. Approval from area advisor

Additional information about comprehensive examinations is available from the music graduate office and the advisor.

Advancement to Candidacy
Advancement to candidacy is based on successful completion of the comprehensive examination, approval by the advisory committee of the dissertation or lecture-document proposal, and the recommendation of the advisor.

Dissertation
A dissertation is required in all doctoral degree programs except the DMA in performance, for which a lecture-document that focuses on some aspect of the performance medium may be substituted. Students in the DMA data-driven instruments track are required to complete a digital portfolio dissertation.

For PhD composition, the dissertation must be an original composition of major proportions composed during doctoral study and performed and recorded on the University of Oregon campus.

Time Limit
Doctoral students have seven years from the term of matriculation to complete the degree. All course work, comprehensive examinations, any required recitals, and the dissertation must be satisfactorily completed before the end of the seven-year period. If this period is exceeded, an additional year of residence or a new set of comprehensive examinations or both are required.

Research (MUE or MUS 601), Dissertation (MUE or MUS 603), and Reading and Conference (MUE, MUJ, or MUS 605) are available during summer session only with advisor’s consent.

Final Oral Defense
A final oral defense is required in all degree programs. The candidate is expected to defend the dissertation or lecture-document and show a command of the research area. Members of the dissertation or lecture-document advisory committee typically conduct the final examination; their appointment is subject to approval by the Division of Graduate Studies.
